Recommend Broadened Health Plan

Kennedy Hears Medical Care For Aged Report

NEW YORK — President-elect John F. Kennedy was urged today to broaden even further a plan for medical care for the aged under social security to bring in 14.5 million persons at an annual cost of about $1 billion.

A task force headed by Dr. Wilber J. Cohen, professor of public welfare administration at the University of Michigan, recommended legislation which would go considerably beyond the Kennedy-Anderson bill which failed of passage in Congress last year.

THE $1 BILLION program would be financed by increasing social security withholding taxes by one-half of 1 per cent—one-fourth of one per cent to be paid by the employer and one-fourth by the employee.

The report was made public shortly before Kennedy boarded a plane for Washington for an afternoon round of conferences on gold and space. Later today he flies to Palm Beach, Fla., to remain there until shortly before his Jan. 20 inauguration.

THE COHEN REPORT recommended that the age of those eligible for health coverage be reduced from 68 to 65 for men and 62 for women. Also to be covered under the new proposal would be widows, orphans and disabled persons receiving social security benefits.

Abraham J. Ribicoff, newly designated secretary of health, education, and welfare, sat in with Cohen and his task force committee when they submitted the report to Kennedy today.

Ribicoff said Kennedy made no comment on the report. He said all the task forces were making independent appraisals of problems which would then be given a most forceful study by the president and his various cabinet departments.

FOR ISRAEL BONDS

Christopher to Be Guest at Dinner

Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco will be guest of honor at the Palm Springs dinner celebrating Israel's Bar Mitzvah year, it was announced today by Dr. George Gillman, chairman, and Abe Schwartz, co-chairman, of the Palm Springs Sponsoring Committee for Israel Bonds.

The event will climax the current drive to encourage American investment in Israel's economic development. Function is scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 22, at 6:30 p.m., at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road.

MAYOR CHRISTOPHER'S forthcoming visit has aroused widespread interest. A proven friend of the State of Israel, he has consistently demonstrated his thorough understanding of problems of the young nation.

His own personal history is an American saga. He was in his

Police Seek 'Poison Pen' Writer Here

An unknown person, referred to by Mayor Frank Bogert as a "poison pen writer" will be investigated by Palm Springs Police in an attempt to identify him.

A letter written to some members of the council was described as being almost "vicious" and possibly in violation of postal regulations.

The letter was written on a green piece of paper about one and a half inches deep, typewritten, and not signed.

Mayor Bogert suggested that the letter be discarded in the nearest trash can, but other members of the council asked that it be turned over to the Police Chief August G. Kettmann to see if it could be traced. Kettmann also was asked to check with the postal authorities as to whether this type letter could be carried through the mails.

BRISK VOTE SEEN ON DHS CITYHOOD

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Approximately 282 voters out of the registered total of 1,011 qualified to vote here today on the question of incorporation for this community, had streamed to the polls by 10:30 a.m., indicating a brisk vote to decide the increasingly bitter incorporation campaign.

Two polling places opened here at 7 a.m., will remain open to 7 p.m. At 66-061 Seventh Street, 180 out of 588 voters had cast their ballot by 10:30 a.m., and at 66-326 Flora Avenue 102 out of 423 had voted by the same hour.

The proponents of incorporation, headed by restaurateur Howard Orr, gained early impetus in the move, and gained support of major civic groups. Later, a committee to study incorporation was formed under the chairmanship of Victor Jubiou, who subsequently personally announced against the move.

A THIRD COMMITTEE, the committee against incorporation, ended its increasing campaign yesterday with a five page document attacking incorporation as financially untenable, and raising the spectre of possible gambling within the community if incorporation carried.

Laos Charges Red Invasion

LUANG PRABANG, Laos — The commander of the Laotian army charged today that two battalions of Viet Minh troops drove across the border from North Viet Nam last week and helped Communist Laotian soldiers capture the town of Nam Boc.

IKE REVEALS REST 'POLICY' TO ROTARIANS

President Eisenhower today announced that he has established a policy of "making no engagements or commitments for a period of at least six months from Jan. 20," in a letter to Clarence Brechlin, president of the Palm Springs Rotary Club.

The President thanked Brechlin for an invitation to address the club, and also for the honorary membership extended.

He added, "I really want a long rest in the beautiful climate of Palm Desert. I know you and the members of the Club will understand."

Anti-U.S. Rallies Started

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — The Cuban press printed a terse announcement today hinting that jumpy anti-aircraft gunners may have shot down one of their own air force planes.

The stories said two officers and one civilian were killed in the mysterious crash of a Cessna plane near Varadero Airfield. They hinted that overzealous militiamen, tense from a 10-day "invasion" alert, may have shot the aircraft by accident.

THE NEWSPAPERS listed as having "died in the line of duty" rebel Air Force Capt. Martin Klein Schiller, 2nd Lt. Heriberto Martin Guzman, and a civilian named Osvaldo Sanchez Cabrera.

The accident drew this comment from the Communist Socialist party:

"In doubly painful tragic circumstances three members of the revolution died... victims of painful confusion due to a zeal to fulfill revolutionary duties and a desire not to waste a single minute from the tasks required by the fatherland and the revolution."

GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED unions today started daily anti-American rallies, which will build up Friday to a "gigantic" demonstration of support for Premier Fidel Castro against the "Yankee invasion threat."

Jesus Soto, leader of the CTC Union Federation, described the rallies as "spontaneous" demonstrations to support for Castro and his chief lieutenants and "an overwhelming notification to Yankee imperialism of our determination to conquer our aggressors or die defending the homeland."

INDIVIDUAL UNIONS will hold mass meetings in various parts of the city today, Wednesday and Thursday to drum up enthusiasm for Friday's "gigantic concentration" outside Cuba's "white house."

The Castro press linked Cuba's current "invasion" scare Monday with the annual U. S. naval maneuvers now beginning in the Caribbean.

The rebel organ Revolucion linked the arrival of the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt in Guantanamo Bay with an unconfirmed U. S. magazine report that an airfield in Guatemala would be used sometime soon as the base for an air attack on the confiscated oil refineries in Cuba.

Negro Students Return Today to Georgia Campus

ATHENS, Ga. — UPI — Two Negro students who broke the University of Georgia's 175-year-old segregation barriers with a barrage of legal maneuvers returned to the campus today.

Charlayne Hunter, 18, and Hamilton Holmes, 19, drove from their Atlanta homes to the campus here after Federal Judge W. A. Bootle in Macon, Ga., signed an order restraining state officials from following a 1956 segregation law requiring that funds for the school be cut off the minute it is integrated.

AS THEY RETURNED there were these developments:
—In Washington, Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook asked Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black to delay the integration order signed by Bootle last Friday so Georgia may carry out a appeal of the order to the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

—A bill was prepared in the state legislature in Atlanta to repeal the funds severance law. Introduction of the bill was delayed, however, pending arguments Thursday in Macon on whether to make permanent the injunction preventing closing of the school.

THE ATMOSPHERE at the school this morning was one of uncertainty but school officials moved among groups of students to advise that classes would continue to meet at least for the time being.

Classes the two Negroes were to have attended this morning, however, were not held.

POLICE REPORT

Home Burglaries Up in December

An increase in house burglaries of five to 11 headed the December report of the Palm Springs Police Department, Chief August G. Kettmann said today.

Thefts under $50 also increased from 21 to 54, check offenses were up from 24 to 29, and malicious mischief complaints jumped from six to 28, largely due to activities of two boys, 12 and 14 years of age.

KETTMMAN REPORTED that auto thefts were down from seven to four.

Traffic accidents increased from 25 to 30, "illustrating the increase in activity which was experienced here from Christmas to and including New Year's," Kettmann said.

A total of 204 employees in restaurants and other activities were fingerprinted, compared to 129 in December of 1959.

$7,500 NEEDED BY TRANSLATOR

Backed by efforts of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce in publicizing its plight, Palm Springs Translator Station, Inc., today launched a last-minute drive for funds to forestall stopping service on Jan. 15.

Officers of the non-profit corporation have set that date for discontinuing service until funds needed to operate the rest of this year are raised. To date, contributions have been received from 487 Translator users, with $7,500 still to be raised.

Man Charged With Beating, Choking Wife

David Owne Hadley, 22, of the Arner Apartments, Cathedral City, was arraigned in justice court here Monday on charges of assault with intent to kill, and a preliminary hearing was set for Wednesday.

Capt. Preston L. Brooks, commander of the Indian sheriff's office, told The Desert Sun the charge may be reduced to felony wife beating.

The charges were made after Hadley's arrest at his home 11 p.m. Sunday, on complaint of his wife, Diane. Mrs. Hadley told sheriff's officers her husband had kicked her, beat her head against the floor, and choked her in aftermath to a domestic quarrel.

Mrs. Hadley was treated by her family physician. A sheriff's deputy reported marks "which could have been finger marks" appeared on her throat Sunday evening.

payable to Palm Springs Translator Station, Inc., and mailed to 1184 Camino Mirasol, Palm Springs.

OTHER MEMBERS of the Translator board of directors are Mayor Frank Bogert, Superior Court Judge Merrill Brown, George Ripley, James Cavett, Dr. Alfred G. Guenardt, Alexander Jablow, David M. McGahey and Harry Paisley.

Chamber manager Jimmy Cooper said that the Chamber board undertook its action and support "in view of the fact that the Palm Springs Translator Station is deemed worthwhile and important to this community."

"If, for lack of funds, the service must be curtailed come Jan. 15, it will mean that those persons in outlying areas, who cannot utilize the television cable service, will not have any television facilities, and it will be a genuine hardship on those persons who cannot afford the more expensive TV cable service."

AT THE LIBRARY

Want Reading Idea? Try Different Books

By LYLE SMITH

The newest books get the most attention from you and from us. It's great to be familiar with the latest on the latest lists: we love that well-read feeling. Besides, most of the new novels are meant for entertainment. There's nothing wrong with that. It's fun to read and that's why we do it, mainly.

But you can get that satisfied feeling, stirle your friends, and get a bonus of brain - stretching besides if you wander a little farther afield. A good project for the new year.

THERE'S A BOOK by Clifton Fadiman that says all of this and more, and very well indeed. It is "The Lifetime Reading Plan," a splendid book with an unappealing title. Mr. Fadiman tells in the introductory chapter why he picked the particular hundred he talks about, what you can expect when and if you read them, and how to go about it.

The list is frightening, and the library will gladly buy a three-decker ice cream cone to any reader who can convince us that he has read them all. What you might well do is glance through the Fadiman and pick a book, one you have heard of all your life ... and read it.

YOU MIGHT PICK "The Education of Henry Adams," hardly a little thing to be swallowed in one evening, a book to be read little by little over a long time with enough food in it to be satisfying for weeks. We'll renew it if you run out of time.

Did you ever really read "The Odyssey?" You can buy a paperback or get it from us, and you'll find that after a while you're not struggling at all, but reading it like a magazine serial ... it's a natural for a cheerful weekly television show.

OR YOU CAN EXPAND your reading another way. Did you ever have your appendix out? Then read "The Triumph of Surgery" by Jurgens Thorwald and you'll really have something to talk about. This is the whole history of surgery, told by an imaginary Dr. Hartman.

Have you ever read Lawrence Durrell? He's really hot in the literary world. All the intellectuals are talking about the four books "Justine, Balthazar, Clea, Mountolive." You can steal a march on them by reading his cheerful, naturalist brother whose latest is "A Zoo on My Luggage," a small, easy, light book. His name is Gerald Durrell, and he is great fun ... but those in the know haven't noticed him yet. When you hear a comment on Lawrence, say, "Oh yes, but have you read his brother Gerald?" That will stop them.

OR YOU MIGHT even read T. E. Lawrence "The Seven Pillars of Wisdom." What could sound more dull than the history of World War I in Arabia? And yet the appealingly introverted, frightfully intelligent classical scholar Lawrence, who wrote this one book only, organized and ran the Arabian war all by himself, ran it and won it, galumphing all over Arabia on a camel and was, as the restrained Britannica says, "the most romantic individual of modern times."

His war is fascinating, and his book is the Arab war and Lawrence all inextricably mixed ... and fascinating. And your bonus will be a considerable understanding of the Arabian world today.

Like's Ex-Aide For Kennedy Medical Plan

Folsom Supports Social Security Health Plan Tie

WASHINGTON — A former member of President Eisenhower's cabinet today endorsed an administration - opposed program to provide medical care for the aged under the social security system.

Marion B. Folsom, former secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, made the statement in a speech prepared for delivery to the White House conference on the aging. He thus threw his backing to a plan favored by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

EARLIER, EISENHOWER advised 2,700 delegates at the opening sessions to try to reconcile clashing views on the controversial medical care issue and agree on a new program. He said all views should be aired but the delegates should seek "common ground" before making their recommendations to Congress and the nation.

The Eisenhower administration opposed financing health benefits through an increase in social security taxes on grounds that it would be "compulsory" and could lead to socialized medicine.

FOLSOM, HOWEVER, said the present law which set up a complex federal-state system to provide aid to needy older people for medical bills, "does not provide a sound solution to the long-range problem."

The AFL-CIO and welfare organizations also back the social security method of paying medical benefits, a proposal Kennedy has included in his priority list of legislation.

The American Medical Association and its allies were prepared to fight against conference endorsement of any such proposal.

BUT FOLSOM SAID the social security approach was "logical" and was endorsed by most students of the problem. He said: "By spreading the cost over the entire wage-earning population through a small tax of one-fourth to one-half per cent of the payroll to $4,800 a year on each employer and employee, a reasonable plan can be financed without adverse effect on the federal budget and with little if any adverse effect on the economy."

Folsom rejected AMA contention that such plans would be "socialized medicine." He said patients would still have free choice of hospitals and doctors.

It Wasn't All Bad News in 1960

History seems to record more of the bad news than good news. And so it is that 1960 will go down in the books as a rather bad year. Some called it a recession. There were some bad spots to be sure but there were some bright ones too.

With all the campaign talk about the predicament of the farmers, they smashed all previous production records in 1960. The bad news, of course, was that government surpluses were piling higher and higher.

Savings of Americans reached an all-time high last year—as did employment. Unemployment was up quite a bit during the last few months, confined mostly to those chronically depressed areas. It is also being shown that the government's figures are probably not very accurate.

Then there was the bad news that steel production was down to 50 per cent of capacity; bad until we realize that capacity has increased to the point where 50 per cent is more than total production a few years back. The fact is that steel had one of its best six years in history.

Automobile production at 6,700,000 units was not far off the 1955 record. The compact experiment was a success.

Most of the nation's largest business firms did all right in 1960. Dividend payments ran to $14.5 billion—the highest in U.S. history. There were some soft spots in industry but the overall picture was good enough to set another record.

It wasn't all bad news in the construction field either. Final records will show that the total volume will be down less than 2 per cent from 1959. That isn't what we had hoped for but it isn't what you would call a real bad year, either. Here in the Palm Springs area construction has continued to move at a faster pace than the national average.

The fact that several countries which this nation has aided for years are now more prosperous than we are could not really be considered to be bad news. That was our objective. Their entering the world market in competition with us, however, could hardly be considered good news.

Palm Springs was specially fortunate, of course: 1960 was the biggest year in its history. The more—everything points to an ever better one in 1961.

Too Much 'Action' in Democracy

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Feeling like the proverbial sparrow caught in a badminton match, Congressman Oldstyle found himself at an Americans For Democratic Action press conference, where "legislative priorities" for the 87th Congress were set forth.

"Question please," said Congressman Oldstyle. "What about this passage which calls for removal of literacy tests for voters? It can't be, can it, that ADA is coming out in favor of illiterate voters?"

HARVARD PROFESSOR Samuel Beer, ADA National Chairman, made what seemed to be an affirmative reply. Congressman Oldstyle had seen a lot of democracy in action. He thought that anybody sincerely for democratic government ought to be for enlightened, able - to - read voters. He could hardly believe what the professor had seemed to say.

Then, Joseph Rauh, Jr., and ADA vice chairman and the Clarence Darrow of the Lunatic Leftists before Congressional committees, entered a clarifying opinion. Attorney Rauh said that ADA didn't exactly favor an illiterate electorate, but was willing to tolerate voters who can't even read the ballot, let alone newspapers, in order to combat the abuse of literacy tests. He seemed to think that five million Negroes were swindled of their voting rights by such abuses.

CONGRESSMAN OLDSTYLE had read in a column somewhere that the thin Democratic majority in 1960 was accounted for by a daffy coalition of the over-educated and the under-educated. Mr. Rauh's expression of egghead tolerance of bone-head voters seemed to bear out the columnist's thesis.

If there hadn't been a lot of reporters trying to ask questions, Congressman Oldstyle was prepared to offer a sure way for ADA candidates to get that mandate they like, instead of a photo finish victory. The way would be for illiterate Americans to become a 40-State or 400 Electoral Vote majority. But Oldstyle let it go. He was afraid ADA might try the proposal.

TOP PRIORITY on ADA's must-list for 1961 was, of course, the must-list which failed in 1960. Chairman Beer was "distressed that influential Democratic leaders have begun sniping at Kennedy proposals."

Asked to name some "snipers," he mentioned Speaker Sam Rayburn, a Congressional colleague of Oldstyle's since 1913, and Senator Kerr, a three-time winner and former Governor. Vice chairman Rauh added Senator Mansfield, the Majority Floor Leader — but neither Beer nor Rauh would concede that Senators Clark and Douglas, who seem to oppose any sign of moderation in the President - elect, were sniping.

THERE WERE other "priorities." Naturally, ADA wanted to junk the Congressional checks-and-balances devices that are built into Senate Rule 22 and the House Rules Committee. Oldstyle sat there thinking how both Hamilton and Jefferson had warned against the perils of hasty, ill-considered and superfluous legislation which flows from too much "Democratic Action."

The next thing he knew, Congressman Oldstyle was getting the ADA message that the world-shaking matter of American fiscal integrity was relatively unimportant. The press statement said that "America's adverse balance of payments should not (obstruct) the enactment of expansionist economic legislation by Congress."

MR. EER ADDED that President Eisenhower's bringing home of military dependents for the purpose of easing the outflow of gold was "extremely foolish and panicky." Oldstyle read a little further, listened a little longer, and he knew that this is where he came in back in the early postwar period when ADA was founded by the Laborites and One Worriers.

Since then, this country has faithfully supported the United Nations, formed and subsidized collective security in the Atlantic, Pacific, Southeast Asia and the Middle East, fought a dozen wars in Korea, mounted a dozen air and sea lifts for distressed peoples, spent billions in foreign aid and trillions in Free World Defense, sent our President, Vice President and Cabinet officers everywhere in the interests of peace and good will.

Congressman Oldstyle couldn't help wondering how ADA could advocate anything more "expansionist" than all this. And he couldn't help wondering if certain people know what year it is.

Was First Choice for Real?

WASHINGTON UP — There remains some wonderment in Washington whether President-elect John F. Kennedy's first choice for postmaster general was for real.

His choice was U.S. Rep. William W. Dawson, a Chicago Democrat. Kennedy appeared with Dawson on the steps of his Georgetown home about three weeks ago and announced that he had invited the representative to join his Cabinet and that Dawson had refused.

DAWSON IS A Negro and he is 74 years old. His age would seem to disqualify Dawson in an administration where the accent is peculiarly on youth. The offer of a Cabinet post to a Negro, however, must be scored as a political grand slam, even though the offer was rejected.

The political significance of the offer is obvious. Not so obvious to persons unfamiliar with Chicago politics were Dawson's qualifications for a Cabinet post in the light of his record. The selection had been rumored long before it was announced. Under such circumstances, the Chicago Daily News on Dec. 10 printed a lead editorial headlines: "We can't believe it! Dawson's record should keep him out of the Cabinet."

THIS EDITORIAL cited circumstantial evidence of a link of some kind between Dawson's congressional office and a couple of notorious Chicago hoodlums. Dawson denied any personal involvement.

"Everybody in or near Chicago," the editorial continued, "knows Dawson's political role on the South Side of Chicago. Here he has tremendous power. Mayors don't tell him what to do. He tells mayors."

"DAWSON HAS absolute political power over an area which has the most crime in proportion to its population; the most errors, intentional and otherwise, in counting votes; the most fraud in the registration of voters; and traditionally, at least, the most corruption among the police serving the area."

"It is impossible for Sen. Kennedy or his brother to have gone through the Senate racket hearings without knowing all of these things. We cannot believe that the next president will appoint Dawson."

Chicago Daily News as the absolute political boss of an empire of corruption, fraud and crime. If so, his confirmation as postmaster general certainly would have been challenged and perhaps refused.

Kennedy is too smart a politician to risk such as that if he knew the facts. On the other hand, it may have been smart politics to get on record with the offer of a Cabinet post to a Negro.

SOME OF KENNEDY'S political enemies suggest that the President-elect may have known that Dawson would reject a Cabinet offer, Dawson being aware, himself, of the challenge he probably would face when his name came up for confirmation in the Senate.

Kennedy's second selection of a Negro for high office was entirely different. His pick was Robert C. Weaver of New York to be housing and home finance administrator. The New York Times and others who know Weaver best saluted that selection with cheers.

All of which makes the affair Dawson even more baffling.

'You Westerners Are the Troublemakers'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

These telephone digits Sure give me the fits.

That's not my lament. The girls at the switchboard here at The Sun take care of me.

BUT IT'S WHAT I hear on the outside. Like a fellow was telling me yesterday.

"With seven numbers to remember, I've got to write down the number before I dial and maybe after I get the 32 dialed I can't find the slip. So I'm sunk."

I tried to tell him that 32 was the same as FA on the dial and all he had to do was dial the last five numbers.

SO, MAYBE, he's in trouble. "But, I've been dialing all seven numbers," he said, "and getting results."

Then he wanted to know how he got a Fireside number. "Easy," I said. "Just dial FI and the number that follows." I'm going to avoid that guy for a while. Because I don't know anything about it, either.

BUT I DO HAVE one gripe about the directory, have had for some time.

You want the city hall. Do you find it under the Cs?

No. It's Palm Springs, City of. Looking for the High School?

It's under Palm Springs Unified School District instead of "H".

THEY SHOULD put them in both places like the Chamber of Commerce which is under "C" for Chamber and "P" for Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

It's like looking up a word in the dictionary and there it is, but the definition is "See so-and-so" and you have to wet your thumb to turn some more pages.

BUT WE SHOULD gripe about seven digits in our phone numbers.

At my beach home, we can call long distance right from my easy chair.

But you have to twirl the dial 11 times.

To get the different exchanges you have to go through.

That's when you really have to write down the number before trying to call it.

You get six of the numbers right and your finger slips and the dial flops back.

And you have to start all over. Yes, science is wonderful. But it can be so frustrating.

BUT THEN, the telephone system is wonderful. One of the latest gadgets which we may have here soon takes care of that annoying buzz-buzz you get when the line is busy.

According to what I read, soon when you dial and get the busy signal, you'll just hang up.

A memory unit will take over. When the party you want is through talking, both his phone and yours will ring.

And you'll be talking.

THEN THERE'S that yarn about the man at the zoo. He was standing in deep meditation by a camel. Then he picked up a straw and placed it on the camel's back and waited. Nothing happened.

"Wrong straw" he muttered as he walked away.

'A Kiss Is Just a Kiss..'

The Zurich Airport was overcast with winter fog when we boarded a Swissair DC-6. (The jet Caravelle was grounded for some minor adjustment. But Swiss insist on running planes and railroads on time you can set your watch by.)

We sat out at the end of the runway with the engines running for five minutes. At the precise moment that the second hand crossed 9 o'clock on my precise Swiss watch, the captain gunned the plane.

At 5,000 feet we broke into brilliant blue skies. And the Swiss steward brought around the coffee.

LONDON (SAID the hall porter in the May Fair Hotel) had been foggy and bitter cold, sir. But today had turned fine. It was a little drizzly to me, maybe it looked good to London.

The news? "There 'as been a bit of a kissing scandal, sir. A few lads at a knitting works in Derbyshire were kissing the girls. Under the mistletoe. The young ladies complained to the management. There was a short strike by the union."

"THEN THERE WAS some young ladies in the cotton works at Accrington who charged one bob a kiss — it was for the good of an orphanage, a worthy cause."

"It's all in the periodicals, if it's any interest to you."

HE BOOKED ME for the morning and evening newspaper—it is impossible to get papers in England unless you make proper reservations. The room waiter brought in tea and watercress sandwiches.

Thus to the kissing situation. Play it, Sam.

THE CASE OF the stolen kiss (said the Daily Mail) happened in the knitting factory of Charnos Ltd. at Ilkerton, Derbyshire.

Two men knitters kissed their pretty colleague under the mistletoe hanging above her bench. The girl went weeping to the management. The men were suspended.

QUOTES

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR MISS VAN BUREN: You recently joined an anonymous correspondent in reproving a minister for portraying a drunken, profane character in "THE CAINE MUNITY." I may possibly be the clergyman who is the object of censure.

In defense of myself, may I say I did not write the script, nor was I willing to mutilate the reality of it. While I do not approve of profanity, there are more ominous sins. St. Peter, for instance, was profane at one point.

"Withhold My Name" and you seem to have the same sterile pedestal conception of the ministry that keeps many good men out of it. But then your attitude is not new. There was one minister who was called a wine-bibber and glutton because he provided alcoholic drinks to prolong a wedding party—in a town called Cana.

Unwitholdingly yours, (Rev.) Lester Kinsolving, Pasco, Wash.

DEAR ABBY: The minister who used the name of the Lord in vain in a theatrical production is just another example of men who have entered the ministry as a profession, not as a calling. I say this fellow is not fit to be called a minister of God. He has never been converted inwardly. No amount of religious garb or jargon will help him. Let him give up the cloth. He is better off in Hollywood.

Sincerely, OKLAHOMA PASTOR

DEAR ABBY: Along with that charming puritan, "Withhold My Name," you joined the ranks of the preacher - watchers and pronounced your own denunciation of the minister who acted a blue-language role in a play. Of course, as you said, "He is first and foremost a minister." But may he not also be an actor?

on occasion? In my opinion he not only has the right to portray a human derelict if he so chooses, but I believe I understand why he chose to do so. With pharisees like "Withhold My Name" in his congregation, he probably needs the therapeutic release of some first-class cussing.

Cordially, "M. T. M."

DEAR ABBY: After preaching the Gospel forty-seven years and traveling in most of the States in the U.S.A., I must say that the case of the preacher who played the part of a drunk and indulged in profanity is the most shocking and disgusting that I have encountered. That such a man is permitted to remain in the membership of the church, much less the ministry, demonstrates the apostate condition of the church.

Letters to the Editor

Editor The Desert Sun

As the year closes we are reminded of the considerable help and co-operation extended by the Desert Sun during 1960 in helping us perform our charged responsibility of protecting life and property within the City of Palm Springs.

Your reporters come to know us and our problems intimately, frequently assist us in the field and in their unique position serve as public guardians hearing the complaints, witnessing the actions and recording the facts in the public interest.

Law enforcement officers live — by proxy — the entire gamut of human experience, and not without some of it attaching to the respective officer. Some of his on-the-spot decisions are finally weighted by the Supreme Court.

Most heart-wrenching involve helpless, unloved children faced with economic or racial hopelessness from whose plight we must turn without being able to help. Human, and striving to be "all things to all people," the frustrated officer many times heads for home with a depressed and heavy heart.

During 1960 our officers, some strong by virtue of training and experience, and others new to Palm Springs and strange to a complex profession, have for the most part enjoyed favorable notice from the Desert Sun. For the recruit in a carefully pressed uniform with glistening badge, training is a daily experience under the supervision of veterans who provide counsel and leadership in the light of their years. The sum total of this represents the efficiency of the department.

Our job, as the protective arm of society, is to guard life and property. The citizen should respect the law and co-operate with duly constituted authority, thereby assuring survival of our way of life. With your fine help and support we will continue to do our best for the city and its citizens in 1961.

Yours very truly, August G. Kettmann Chief of Police

Mariachis Get Decor At Hilltop

By GEORGE LAINE

One of the first things Tony Carvajal said when he took over the reins of the Hilltop Room here last fall was that he intended to "create an environment for Raul and Gustavo" in the piano bar area of the popular South Palm Canyon Drive club.

Now it is a fact, not a promise.

MOREOVER, IT IS a highly interesting artistic addition to our town's total environment.

Art LeCon, who has conducted numerous experiments with the relatively new medium of gold paint on black velvet, produced three striking bullfight studies for the walls that surround the piano-bar. Each is unusual, each is compelling. Property lit, they actually do create the environment that Carvajal spoke of for the two mariachis.

One is a study of a matador with a sword at his feet, another a matador executing a cape pass and the third a matador with banderillas.

THE WAY THE PAIR of mariachis responded to the new decor in the Mariachi Room was something to see. Raul and Gustavo, obviously impressed by the addition — and sentimentally affected by Carvajal's interest in their behalf — played that first night though they would never stop. (And the crowd's hopes could best be explained in that same phrase.)

Carvajal's long range plans for the Hilltop are such as to continue to maintain the place as one of Palm Springs' favorite hangouts for people who want something besides the good food, fine drink and off-beat entertainment. The location, the view and the general tenor of the environment insure that place for the Hilltop.

(The night the paintings were unveiled, the group had a ball figuring subtitles for the LeCon works. The best I heard were — For the matador with the sword at his feet: "How do you expect me to pick it up in these tight pants?" For the matador with the cape: "One, two — one, two, three — I never can get that darn cha cha step." And for the matador with the banderillas: "I know I've got great form, but does the bull know it?")

NINA PAUL SHUMWAY, a marvelously expressive writer from Palm Desert, has done a brief but fascinating biographical job on Gen. David Prescott Barrow in the January issue of Desert Magazine. Titled "Friends of the Cahuilla," the story goes into vivid detail on the general's contributions to betterment of relationships with the tribe.

The author's recently published book, "Your Desert and Mine," is also moving nicely at book stores hereabouts.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Mike Bedney, the new addition to the entertainment lineup at the Hilltop, is drawing large crowds . . . And getting great reaction, too . . . I don't recall the town being exposed to a blues singer before so this may be another first for Hilltop . . .

Just as you might have guessed, the L. A. County D. A. is quizzing all of the "actors" in last week's Dennis Crosby paternity suit trial . . . When you get two stories that are directly opposite, you gotta bet someone lied . . .

Someone swiped the numeral "5" from the El Mirador marquee the other night leaving the sign to read "Eddy Howard and his 1 Piece Orchestra" . . . C'mon, fellas, put it back . . .

Don't gamble on good luck . . . be sure, insure

Salisbury Puts His Experience Into Lectures

Back in the closing days of the Roaring Twenties, the New York Times carried a page one report of the firing of a young undergraduate from the editorship of the University of Minnesota's daily "for smoking a cigaret in the university library."

Twenty years later, the same young editor, wiser with the passing years had become the Moscow correspondent of the famous New York newspaper.

Pulitzer Prize-winning Harrison Salisbury, the next speaker to address the Community Forum at the Jewish Community Center on Thursday, January 19 at 8 p.m., smiles when he recalls that youthful escapade.

From his wealth of experience in the Soviet, Mr. Salisbury will present his lecture, "A New Look at the Soviet Challenge." Tickets are available at the office of the Jewish Community Center, 325-2055.

It is a first effort for Pablita, and a very successful one which combines tribal legends with illustrations in color of the distinctive paintings of Southwestern American artists.

Featured in the nine by 12 inch 68 page volume are a full cover painting on vinyl cloth in boards, five full color eight by 10 paintings and eight smaller ones, and three black-and-white illustrations.

The six legends come alive through the paintings.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

The Tennis Club ... which a week earlier was the scene of a Hope family reunion for New Years ... with four of the five Hope brothers and their families gathered together for the first time in years ... was also the setting for a Hearst family gathering this weekend ... with three of Hearst sons and a granddaughter there for a party which honored the Hearst family matriarch Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Sr. ... Mrs. Hearst ... who was much entertained in Los Angeles ... before she came here ... said that it was her first visit to Palm Springs ... She thought she might have gotten some sand in her shoes and that she may be back here ... now that son George has a Palm Springs home ...

The George Hearsts ... who hosted the party had a few of the dinner party come in for cocktails at their Abrigo Road home ... to meet the family informally ... Mrs. Hearst Sr. and her sister Anita (Mrs. Walter) Irwin ... who live together in New York and Palm Beach ... David and Hope Hearst (she in an emerald green chiffon ... which made me thankful I was wearing my Bess Bender turquoise chiffon with the roses in the back) ... Randolph and Katherine Hearst ... and blonde young Phoebe Hearst Tovea (named for her great-grandmother Phoebe Apperson Hearst ... one of the founders of P-TA) was there from Phoenix ... with her escort Jack Cook ...

The Larry Coopers ... who formerly owned the house ... were up from Lido and houseguesting with Gwyn (Mrs. William) Marcy ... were in the party along with Gwyn ... The Coopers couldn't believe what the new owners have done to the house in such a short period of time ... An elaborate buffet of canapés (all the work of the Hearsts' own cook) was served in the smart little diningroom ... which they have added to the house ...

Bob Simon to Set Rules for Appaloosa Club

Bob Simon, National Horse Show judge, who has a home here, has been invited by the Appaloosa Horse Show Club of Moscow, Idaho, to write the rules for this new organization. Recently accepted by the National Horse Show, the new Appaloosa Horse Club is the fastest growing in the country, and its rules will be used world wide. The Appaloosa horse is not a pinto, but is more like the horse used by the Nez Perce Indians, Simon said. Simon, who makes the circuit of all the big horse shows, is about to build a house here on a Via Colusa lot, which he purchased recently from his friend Ed Robin of Reno, Nevada and Palm Springs.

Two cocktails — about .04 per cent of alcohol in the blood — can reduce visibility about as much as wearing dark glasses at night.

Bougainvillea Room ... were ... Auntie Pearl McManus, the Bing Crosbys, the Frank Bogerts and Mrs. Norman Winston ... who were to be seated at the head table with the guest of honor ... and Dr. Ben Lennon of Los Angeles ... who was my dinner and dancing companion ...

Others in the cocktail and dinner group ... which included all the original party at the house ... were ... Ray Ryan ... who arrived with beautiful Mara Lane (in a rather sensational gown) and Marjorie DeLauer ... the Dick Whitings, Earl Cordreys, Mrs. Ward Warner, New MacGurn, Joan McManus, the Pat Raymonds, Geri Fredericksen and more ...

This was the first time I had met Mrs. Winston ... who, with her husband, is here for a month's stay ... and I was interested to see what one of America's 10 best dressed women would wear to a Palm Springs cocktail - dinner - dance ... It was a short (but below the knees) Balenciaga (which she described as "last year's") with a barrel skirt of soft brown satin with a flat bow in front at the waist ... and a pearl embroidered bodice ... with bateau neckline and three quarter length sleeves ... There was no necklace ... and no bracelets ... only pearl pendant earrings ...

She said she really prefers long dresses ... which she considers more feminine ... but chose this as tight for a small dinner dance ... She looked just right ... and her dark brown hair was done in a modified bubble arrangement ...

This was a weekend ... which also included ... the Tennis Club's first-of-the-season Friday night seafood buffet ... El Mirador's Sunday Brunch ... a peek at what's going on in the Kiva Room ... and a leisurely Sunday night supper at the Hilltop Room ... looking down at the lights of Palm Springs ... But ... more about that tomorrow ...

WEEKEND VISITORS in Palm Springs included Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hearst, shown here at the Tennis Club party which honored his mother, Mrs. Hearst Sr. (P. S. Newsphoto)

Pathfinders Plan First Annual Dinner Dance at Tennis Club February 18

Pathfinders board, meeting Saturday morning at the Via Las Palmas home of Mrs. W. B. Malouf, set the date for the first annual Pathfinder Dinner Dance and learned that they have raised over $6000 in the first four months since severance of association with W.A.I.F.

The two groups were formerly interlocking, with Pathfinders assisting in raising the money and in charge of local dispersal of funds. Since the disassociation, which came about because the Pathfinders group wished to use all their money for local child care needs, Pathfinders has given $2000 to the Palm Springs Boys Club; $3000 to the Pathfinders special child care account with Welfare & Friendly Aid; and made Christmas merrier for the boys at St. Boniface Boys Town of the Desert at Banning, by taking them two trees and decorations, games and Christmas records, it was reported.

The first annual Pathfinders Dinner Dance, which will be a black tie affair, will be held at the Tennis Club on the evening of February 18, and will be limited to 200, with invitations going to Pathfinder board members and associate members.

Mrs. Malouf and Mrs. Joseph Froggatt Jr. will head the large committee, which Pathfinders president Mrs. S. P. Manasse has named for this event.

Mrs. Victor Hugo-Vidal heads the invitation committee, assisted by Mrs. Randolph Christie, who in turn heads the ticket committee, which includes Mmes. George Garmon, Walter Sibbert, Earl Henderson, John Costello and Joe Hale.

Mrs. John McClure's decorations committee includes Mmes. Ed Fallgren, Howard Morris, John Dawson, James Abernathy, Walter Braunschweiger, Clarence Brown, Walter Brunmark, and Austin McManus. Mrs. McManus is contributing the table decorations.

Favors chairman is Mrs. Norman Waters, assisted by Mrs. Dolph Obergfel, and Mrs. William Crawford was named program chairman.

Hostess committee will include Mmes. George Rogerson, Earl Buckingham, Austin McManus, Chauncey Needham, George Wheeler, Fred Albertson, Earl Henderson, Edgar Schill, Louise Nicoletti.

CALIFORNIA'S GOVERNOR and First Lady, the Pat Browns, who were here as weekend guests of the Phil Regans, were honored at a Saturday night party at the Regan home, preceding a dinner party at the Racquet Club. They are shown

Estimate Cost of Girl Babies Higher Than Boys

By BETTY BAUER

United Press International
ITHACA, N. Y. — Every one knows that babies are costly, but here's something that may come as a surprise. Girl babies are cheaper than boy babies.

Many young couples who are having their first child usually guide themselves by the old household rule that a boy baby costs less because he requires less fancy frills, cute decorations and extra clothing than a little girl.

But not so, says Louise Archibold, who did quite a bit of research on the problem working on her master's degree at the State College of Home Economics at Cornell University.

Miss Archibold surveyed the arrival of 50 "first bundles of heaven" here and found they cost a total of $33,934. That, she said, broke down to an average of $678 per baby, including gifts, medical and hospital insurance, what the expectant mother buys — or makes.

Thus, for example, an even 7 pounder (babies usually weigh in at first in fractions) would be worth almost $97 a pound.

Miss Archibold turned to current mail order catalogue prices to figure the dollar value of infant goods and furnishings, plus mama's maternity outfits. She also counted up the usual gift borrowed cribs and things the expectant parents — frequently, a mother-to-be who knits — makes at home.

The average dollar outlay per boy, she found, broke down to: $79 purchased; $133 gifts; $31 borrowed; $12 home-produced.

On that basis, a girl costs a little less, or about $235. Miss Archibold said she can't explain why.

Miss Archibold also reported finding:

—Younger parents received more gifts.

—Older couples borrowed more.

—Student families bought less but made more baby things.

Toys led the special gifts received by babies, she said, but there were exceptions.

In her research, Miss Archibold found one infant—or new mother—who enjoyed a gift of the services of a practical nurse for two weeks.

There also was a baby who received a heifer from his grandparents.

"My father's hobby is farming," the baby's mother told Miss Archibold. "Every time he learns of an addition to the family-to-be he selects one of his choice calves and fattens same."

The mother said that the parents can either leave the animal on the farm for the child or have it sent to market.

"We choose the market and the baby received a check for the amount it brought," she said.

"However, all is not lost when the money is spent. When the baby is five years old he, personally, will receive a heifer from grandpa."

Leading Pilots to Compete in 18th P.S. Road Races

More than 200 entries including the top sports car drivers of the western states, are expected to enter the 18th annual Palm Springs sports car road races Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 21-22, according to the sponsoring Sports Car Club of America.

The traditional event, one of the major club racing dates in the Southwest as well as one of the oldest, will draw most of the top drivers in the western area.

Two full days of racing are planned over the 2.2 mile Palm Springs Airport course, Jim Peterson, regional SCCA executive, said.

Last year's race at the Airport produced the first major West Coast triumph of the then new Italian "Birdcage" Maserati, owned by Joe Lubin of Beverly Hills, and driven by Bob Drake, Hollywood restaurateur. Drake won after a thrilling duel with Bill Krause before winning.

The SCCA holds its annual Award Banquet in connection with the meet, honoring the 1960 champions.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The basketball coaches who have stressed the importance of accurate foul shooting to their eager charges will have a tough time explaining this one.

Dartmouth Coach Doggy Julian feels that free throws are playing too great a role in determining games and to counteract this he has proposed that the value of a field goal in college ball be increased to three points.

Speaking at the weekly meeting of the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association on Monday, the 59-year-old coach said:

"I don't think this game was meant to be won by fouls." He told the gathering that the

NCAA Debates Fate Of Tar Heels, Arizona

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The 18-member ruling committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association passes judgment today on the universities of North Carolina and Arizona which allegedly violated recruiting regulations.

Representatives of both schools presented their case Monday before the committee. It was the second time the Tar Heels had stated their facts. A four-man delegation headed by Chancellor William B. Aycock met with the committee behind closed doors for two hours and 20 minutes Sunday.

THE TAR HEELS had been under investigation since 1957 when it was alleged they had illegally recruited basketball players from Brooklyn St. John's.

Frank McGuire, who coached at St. John's before taking over the Tar Heels in 1952, denied wrongdoing.

A formal decision was expected to be announced by mid-morning. Shortly after the NCAA opened its 55th annual convention Monday the council acted on recruiting probation affecting Oklahoma, Southern California and Tulsa.

THE GOVERNING BODY lifted a two year suspension against Southern Cal and a one-year penalty against Tulsa. A few hours later Oklahoma's "indefinite" probation was ended.

An amendment governing "pre-registration" of student athletes drew widespread attention. This amendment was proposed to eliminate or at least limit spirited competition for high school athletes.

The NCAA would have high school athletes sign a "pre-registration" certificate when they have reached a decision on enrollment. Other recruiters would honor a "hands-off" policy on athletes who had committed themselves to a particular school.

Goalby Finishes Strong for Los Angeles Open Victory

Birdie on 12th Wins Top Prize

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Bob Goalby, once a reserve quarterback but now a first string golfer, today had "lots of luck," a new putter and Arnold Palmer to thank for his biggest win yet — $7,500 top prize money in the $45,000 Los Angeles Open.

He captured the big loot Monday in a stirring head-to-head stretch drive with crowd favorite Paul Harney — the leader at the halfway mark and going into the final 18.

Goalby broke the slender, gray-haired, Worcester, Mass., pro with a sensational birdie on the 12th. From there on in, he played it cool and careful to make it a

Tommy Jacobs Picks Up $625 in Open

Tommy Jacobs of Bermuda Dunes CC who fired a sizzling 64 to lead all other pros in the Pro-Am event which preceded the Los Angeles Open, wound up with a 283, one under par for the 72 holes.

His card was 69-69-71-74—283 and he picked up $625 in prize money.

waltz, increasing his winning margin to three strokes.

HE LISTED HIS three charms thusly:

— "You've got to have more than a little luck to win. I had mine."

— "You never win anything unless you putt well. I used a new putter for my last two tournaments and won them both."

— "When Arnold Palmer shot his 12 (the U. S. Open champion had a 12 on the final hole of his first round which helped lead to his early elimination), he helped a lot of us younger pros."

Goalby, who plans to play in the San Diego Open this coming weekend "and just about every tournament I'm eligible for this year," wrapped the tournament on the par-three, 229-yard 12. He belted a tee shot 25 feet short of the hole. Then with a bold putt, he rammed it home — the ball hit the lip of the cup, bounced a foot high in the air and dropped squarely in.

HARNEY, WHO has been nursing a stiff neck throughout the tournament had his downfall on the same hole. He started the day one stroke ahead of the pack and had predicted it would take a "68 on my part to win." He made the turn at the front nine all even with Goalby. But he missed the green with his tee shot on the 12th, chipped up short, and missed a 20-foot putt to fall two strokes off the pace. This shook him so much he later picked up another bogey and finished in a tie for fourth.

In second at the finish were Eric Brown, Glasgow, Scotland, and Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., to take $3,325 each.

At 279 with Harney were Billy Casper, Apple Valley, Calif., and Ken Venturi of Hillsborough, Calif. Each of the three picked up $2,133 and a few cents.

It marked his return to baseball six years after leaving the then New York Giants as manager.

Ohio State Unanimous Choice in Cage Rating

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's Ohio State by unanimous acclaim as the best college basketball team in the nation.

The Buckeyes are the first team ever to receive a perfect score from the United Press International 35-man board of coaches since the ratings were inaugurated in 1950.

Three times previously this season, Ohio State was picked tops by 34 of the 35 coaches. No team ever has received such strong support as the best in college basketball.

Coach Fred Taylor's defending NCAA champions, winners in their first 10 games, now have been on top for all six weeks of the season.

Bradley, with a 12-0 record, remained No. 2 for the sixth consecutive week. The Braves were picked for the runnerup spot by 27 of the 35 coaches who comprise the UPI rating board.

This week's top 10 was made up of the same teams as last week's with a few shifts in positions.

Louisville, with a 13-0 record, moved up two notches to the No.

4 spot, behind St. Bonaventure, St. John's (N. Y.), Kansas State, North Carolina, Iowa, Duke and UCLA rounded out the select group in that order.

St. John's fell one notch in the ratings while North Carolina and UCLA fell two places. Kansas State, Iowa and Duke each moved up one spot from last week.

Indiana headed the second 10 group, followed in order by Utah, Southern California and Detroit.

There was a tie for 13th place between Memphis State and Vanderbilt; Wichita was 17th.
